

BANGOR DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

BY BOUTELLE BROTHERS.

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER

BANGOR, MAINE, MONDAY, APRIL 6, 1896

Price Three Cents.

VOL. LXIII.—NO. 3

A GREAT OFFER!

Cosmopolitan Magazine

AND
The Daily Whig and Courier

ONE YEAR FOR

$6.84 IN ADVANCE.

Now is the time to send in your name.

REGULAR SPRING OPENING,
WEDNESDAY, APRIL EIGHTH.
PATTERN BONNETS AND HATS.
We shall exhibit a larger stock than ever.
45 MAIN ST. — C. W. COPEXIN.

All
That is Best
in an experience of over fifty years combined with modern taste and improvement makes it the best in the market. Make it a point to pay a larger price if it is just as good, but ask us where to get it. We will be pleased to supply you with our famous Removable Dress
Hats. Our quality is second to none.
WOOD & BISHOP CO., BANGOR, MAINE.

RICHMOND VICTOR
Steam and Hot Water Heaters

To take the lead. None better on the market, as their record can show.
Manufactured in Bangor and vicinity than any other kind. References sent on application to the agents.

Leighton, Davenport & Co.,
96 EXCHANGE STREET, BANGOR,
Plumbers, Steam and Hot Water Fitters

IT IS OF NO USE
Overlooking the fact that when you want to get the best and the most for your money The Leading Gush Market is the place to trade. Everything the best that money will buy. No room for inferior goods. Call and look over my assortment of Meats and Vegetables.

LYNCH'S, Exchange Street.

MILLINERY OPENING
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8th.
MISS S. J. COOMBS, 34 Main St.

SPRING and SUMMER OPENING
Will occur on Wednesday and Thursday, April 8th and 9th.
A longer time than usual of Imported and Domestic Hats and Bonnets will be displayed at 132 MAIN STREET.
Opp. OPERA HOUSE.

MISS H. E. SEAVEY EASTER OPENING
TRIMMED HATS AND BONNETS
SATURDAY, APRIL 4th. 100 MAIN ST. ROOM 2

KNOX.
A large variety of goods
Superior in quality, and Style

It may seem to you a little previous, nevertheless our full line of

SPRING SUITS
AND OVERCOATS

has arrived.
If interested come and see the largest line of

YOUNG MENS' NOBBY SPRING SUITS, all of the very latest, up-to-date styles, perfect fitting, strictly tailor made, at

J. WATERMAN'S
ONE PRICE CLOTHING HOUSE, EXCHANGE ST., BANGOR.

IN CONGRESS.

Further Debate on Cuba in the House on Saturday.

Members Oppose Action of Congress in Recognition of Belligerency.

Speeches Also in Favor of Passing the Resolutions—An Explanation.

WASHINGTON, April 4. In the House to-day Mr. Huot (Rep., Mass.) asked consideration of the bill reported by the Committee on Territories at the request of the Treasury Department to amend the law for the protection of sailors in American ports. He explained the necessity for this bill, which had been introduced in the fact that the fish dealers in the streams about June 1, no legislation to be effectual must be speedily enacted. After the reading of the bill, objection to present consideration was made by Mr. Burham (Rep., Cal.).

Mr. Andrews (Rep., N. H.) called up the bill to pass it. J. M. Thayer, late brevet Major of Volunteers, at $100 per month. Passed without division.

Mr. LeBaron (Rep., Penn.) presented the unanounced report of Elections Committee No. 1 in the case of Robinson against Harrison, third Alabama district, in favor of the contestants and asked immediate consideration. Agreed to unanimously.

Mr. Hilt, of Illinois, called up the conference report on the Cuban resolutions. Mr. Adams (Rep., Penn.), one of the members of the committee, took the floor. He denied that the sentiment had changed, and that the bill was in favor of belligerency of the Cubans since the passage of the original resolutions in the House. He thought the time had now come when something should be done, and he believed if recognition of belligerency would help the Cubans, the House ought to do this. The motion was carried. Mr. Adams said the bill would not concern Cuba and that country would join the ranks of those nations whose governments are dedicated to the highest and best interests of man, whose white and black had the same religious and civil rights, which were administered without dominion from any European power (Applause).

Mr. Knox (Rep., Mass.) said a state of war did exist in Cuba, that somewhere among the fastnesses of the mountains of that island, the ancient stronghold of liberty, there had been established a government founded upon justice, equality of men, and the Cuban army, which, in its ranks, fought battles and endured privations which challenged the admiration of the world.

The duty devolved upon the United States, where free government had the highest development, to recognize the belligerency of the Cuban insurgents, that they might be their auxiliary and might be their successors. Mr. Draper (Rep., Mass.), in which the list briefly set forth reasons why he opposed the resolutions in submitting the letter Mr. Knox expressed regret that he could not agree with the writer.

Mr. Gillette (Rep., Mass.) admitted that the original bill was introduced by the House, as manifested by the vote of several weeks ago, probably represented public opinion, but this matter should not be decided by public opinion.

Public opinion was not the law and right of the case, considered only as an expression of sympathy with the Cuban rebels, but sympathy with the Cuban rebels, and went not to the Cuban insurgents. He did not see how any American with the memory of the revolution and all the history of the country in his mind, could withhold his sympathy and all proper support. The question before the House included more than Cuba.

The men who were to be considered as well as us of liberty. The passage of the resolutions, Mr. Gillette said, would accomplish no good result. Granting belligerency to the Cubans was not the function or prerogative of legislative power, but of the executive.

The passage of the resolutions would be a recognition of Cuban independence, the reason why the Cubans desired their passage, was that they would lead to war between Spain and the United States. Such a conflict, in his opinion, was the only hope of Cuban independence and that explained why the resolution was passed.

Mr. Gillette said it might naturally evoke the comment that it was actuated by a desire and ambition to acquire territory and not altogether moved by philanthropy or love of liberty. As to the resolution favoring friendly intervention by the United States, Mr. Gillette said it was done to hope for good advice, not for executive power.

The passage of what has been said in an other body to decide on this subject, the proper sentiments of Spain has been wounded, friendly intervention on the part of the United States was impossible. Mr. Gillette continued. It seemed to me that the best course to take in this case, of provision of our constitution which places the power of dealing with other matters in another branch of the government than Congress, where the executive, desire for applause, desire to be the popular chief may lead to speech discreditable which may excite foreign complications, a committee of the house, discreditable, the conduct of the government was that they discharged the responsibility of preventing the entry of the rail way employees from entering a nation during working hours.

There was very determined talk in and around Clarendon Hall that afternoon by employees of the railroad company and it was agreed that the rail way company should be compelled to make a public statement which is dictated by constituents, when legislation for the good of its constituents has been presented to it, has put it aside; which sees the country in bankruptcy and suffering, trade dull, commerce paralytic and everybody appealing to the rail way company to do something, and I say, conceive of it, if there is anywhere such a body as that, it might well try to divert public attention from its own misconduct by stirring up feeling about foreign war, a story of martial ambition and might by some gull of enthusiasm, then follow it, the popular chief deserves to be blamed.

It is not parliamentary to speak of the other branch of Congress and I will not do so, but I can conceive that if it is so, anywhere in the country, there are rail way companies which are forced into public statements which is dictated by constituents, when legislation for the good of its constituents has been presented to it, has put it aside; which sees the country in bankruptcy and suffering, trade dull, commerce paralytic and everybody appealing to the rail way company to do something, and I say, conceive of it, if there is anywhere such a body as that, it might well try to divert public attention from its own misconduct by stirring up feeling about foreign war, a story of martial ambition and might by some gull of enthusiasm, then follow it, the popular chief deserves to be blamed.

When Mr. Gillette had concluded, an effort was made by Mr. Eliot to secure an agreement to close the debt and rule a vote to day. In this he was unsuccessful. The great majority of members present voted to vote at 4, but a number of them, including the report, including a right session, and take a vote Monday immediately after the reading of the letter.

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions having voted to close up the affairs of the association.

The site is the result of the manufacture of the association assert that racing cannot be conducted without loss as long as that lay stuns on the statuary books. About a dozen persons were present when the auctioneer called for bids.

Ex-Governor M. G. Bulkeley, president of the association, made the first bid, $12,000 for the stock and land, and 70 acres of land and buildings, including the stables, superintendent's house, etc.

Col. Henry Kennedy, vice-president of the Central Labor Union, bid in the property for $10,000. Col. Kennedy also bought 30 acres of land adjoining the park for $2,500 an acre and of stock and land, and 70 acres of land and buildings, including the stables, superintendent's house, etc.

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

Mr. Murray (Rep., N. Y.) said he voted for the resolutions under protest.

The Cuban debate was interrupted near the close of the session by Mr. Bartlett (Dem., Ga.) who, after a privileged question made an explanation of his connection with the now famous circular which formed the subject of an notorious

Mr. Wulff (Dem., N. Y.) expressed approval of the resolutions and defended Senator H. H. of New York, from the charge made by Mr. Adams that he was actuated by other than the best motives in the treatment of them.

NILLINERY OPENING

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8th.

At 298 Hammond St. Mrs. E. STEVENS

TO THE PUBLIC:
PAPER HANGINGS.We are now prepared to show a fine selection from the best factories in the country, including beautiful designs from Thomas Stratt & Co., of which we are the sole agents in Bangor, and the best service of Mr. H. W. Atwood, with his experience in the business and his knowledge of color and harmonious effects can not fail to be of great benefit to our customers.

All orders by mail will receive prompt attention.

MARSTON & GORHAM,
PRACTICAL PAINTERS AND DECORATORS,
48 STATE ST.

B. & K. I. W. BONDS

AND

E. & N. A. R. R. STOCK,

FOR SALE BY

F. H. C. REYNOLDS.

RENTAL

MERRILL & CO.,
BANKERS.

Proprietors of the

Bangor Safe Deposit Vaults,

OFFERED

DEPOSITORS

Every Facility which their businesses, business and responsibility warrant.

25 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

Enables us to meet for our customers.

THE BEST INVESTMENT SECURITIES.

All business strictly confidential.

MERRILL & CO.,

No. 7 Kenduskeag Blk No. 19 State St.,

BANGOR, MAINE.

RENTAL

Attention
Bicyclists!For a good wheel call and examine the "EVERGREEN" and "REBAY" wheels at the

"EAST SIDE PHARMACY."

H. O. MILLER.

RENTAL

City of Bangor.

AT THE RATE

for the single quarter are now less than TEN PERCENT, will be deducted to all rates remaining unpaid after APRIL 20, 1896. These open statements are made by the Owners and Committee of Assessors, and are to be sent to the Assessors and handed to the Committee on Assessors and the Assessors and Clerk, or better, the above named time and place.CHARLES H. GLASS, Underwriter, Assessors' Company.

RENTAL

ENTERTAINMENTS.

THE ONLY ORIGINAL

FISK - JUBILEE - SINGERS

(LONDON)

V. M. C. A. HALL,

Saturday, April 4, and Monday, April 6,

8 O'CLOCK.

Reserved Seats, 35 and 50 Cts.

Sale of reserved seats open Wednesday, April 1st, at Y. M. C. A. Building.

RENTAL

OPERA HOUSE

FRANK A. OWEN, Manager.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8.

HOYT'S

Grand Comedy.

A Midnight Bell.

With America's Favorite Comedians,

DIGBY BELL,

The Famous Comedienne,

LAURA JOYCE BELL,

And a Cast of

25-ARTISTS - 25

The Greatest Comedy.

MIDNIGHT BELL QUARTETTE

Composed now by Victor Herbert and Percy Gaunt. Superb new scenario by Arthur Voegelin.

Management, Duncan B. Hartman.

Prices, $1.00, 75, 50, 25, 25cts. Sale open Monday

8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th.

RENTAL

Concert and Dance

For the Benefit of the Kindergarten

Association,

CITY HALL, TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 1896.

CONCERT BY

PULLEN'S FULL ORCHESTRA

To begin at 1:45.

Dancing from 9 to 12.

Light refreshments will be on sale during the evening.

TICKETS, 50 CENTS.

RENTAL

BANGOR SAVINGS BANK.

NOTICE OF DIVIDEND.

A semi-annual dividend at the rate of three and one-half per cent. per annum was declared by the

BANGOR SAVINGS BANK, MARCH 31, 1896, payable on and after Monday, April 6, 1896. All interests will be immediately credited to depositors and drawn therefrom as principal.

JOHN L. CROSBY, Treasurer.

RENTAL

STEAMBOATS.

BOSTON & BANGOR

Steamship Co.

WINTER SERVICE.

Two trips a week to Boston.

RENTAL

RETURNING.

From Boston, Tuesdays and Fridays at 10 A. M.

From Rockland, Wednesdays and Saturdays at about 9:30 A. M., touching at intermediate points.

EDWARD T. BANISTER, Agent, Boston.

WILLIAM H. SMITH, Gen. Manager, Boston.

RENTAL

SHE WAS

Once open to a reasonable offer, but

rejected it. Behold the result. WHITE

FIRE BALCONY offers her best and

the CASHIER WITH THE CASH

CHANCES OF A REBIRTH OF IT!

PRICES, 25 CENTS.

MANUFACTURED BY CALDWELL SWEET,

BANGOR, ME.

Solid storybook.

SHE WAS

Once open to a reasonable offer, but

rejected it. Behold the result. WHITE

FIRE BALCONY offers her best and

the CASHIER WITH THE CASH

CHANCES OF A REBIRTH OF IT!

PRICES, 25 CENTS.

MANUFACTURED BY CALDWELL SWEET,

BANGOR, ME.

Solid storybook.

SHE WAS

Once open to a reasonable offer, but

rejected it. Behold the result. WHITE

FIRE BALCONY offers her best and

the CASHIER WITH THE CASH

CHANCES OF A REBIRTH OF IT!

PRICES, 25 CENTS.

MANUFACTURED BY CALDWELL SWEET,

BANGOR, ME.

Solid storybook.

SHE WAS

Once open to a reasonable offer, but

rejected it. Behold the result. WHITE

FIRE BALCONY offers her best and

the CASHIER WITH THE CASH

CHANCES OF A REBIRTH OF IT!

PRICES, 25 CENTS.

MANUFACTURED BY CALDWELL SWEET,

BANGOR, ME.

Solid storybook.

SHE WAS

Once open to a reasonable offer, but

rejected it. Behold the result. WHITE

FIRE BALCONY offers her best and

the CASHIER WITH THE CASH

CHANCES OF A REBIRTH OF IT!

PRICES, 25 CENTS.

MANUFACTURED BY CALDWELL SWEET,

BANGOR, ME.

Solid storybook.

SHE WAS

Once open to a reasonable offer, but

rejected it. Behold the result. WHITE

FIRE BALCONY offers her best and

the CASHIER WITH THE CASH

CHANCES OF A REBIRTH OF IT!

PRICES, 25 CENTS.

MANUFACTURED BY CALDWELL SWEET,

BANGOR, ME.

Solid storybook.

SHE WAS

Once open to a reasonable offer, but

rejected it. Behold the result. WHITE

FIRE BALCONY offers her best and

the CASHIER WITH THE CASH

CHANCES OF A REBIRTH OF IT!

PRICES, 25 CENTS.

MANUFACTURED BY CALDWELL SWEET,

BANGOR, ME.

Solid storybook.

SHE WAS

Once open to a reasonable offer, but

rejected it. Behold the result. WHITE

FIRE BALCONY offers her best and

the CASHIER WITH THE CASH

CHANCES OF A REBIRTH OF IT!

PRICES, 25 CENTS.

MANUFACTURED BY CALDWELL SWEET,

BANGOR, ME.

Solid storybook.

SHE WAS

Once open to a reasonable offer, but

rejected it. Behold the result. WHITE

FIRE BALCONY offers her best and

the CASHIER WITH THE CASH

CHANCES OF A REBIRTH OF IT!

PRICES, 25 CENTS.

MANUFACTURED BY CALDWELL SWEET,

BANGOR, ME.

Solid storybook.

SHE WAS

Once open to a reasonable offer, but

rejected it. Behold the result. WHITE

FIRE BALCONY offers her best and

the CASHIER WITH THE CASH

CHANCES OF A REBIRTH OF IT!

PRICES, 25 CENTS.

MANUFACTURED BY CALDWELL SWEET,

BANGOR, ME.

Solid storybook.

SHE WAS

Once open to a reasonable offer, but